

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly German, located in the upper neck area of the document. The text is partially obscured by a circular stamp.

Faint handwritten text or markings located in the lower right quadrant of the document, possibly a signature or date.